at 0400 on Sunday 07 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry conditions to continue but turning unsettled midweek.

Today:
A chilly start with frost likely across many parts, but fine and dry throughout the day. Turning a little cloudier into the afternoon, so the best of the sunshine will be in the morning. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining dry throughout the evening and night. Cloud will come and go to give some clear spells at times. Further frost will develop under any clear skies. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Monday:
Feeling cold during the morning with a risk of frost. Staying dry throughout the day. Cloudier than of late so sunshine more limited. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Patchy light rain briefly on Tuesday and winds increasing overnight. Potentially heavy rain and strong winds on Wednesday, with coastal gales. Blustery heavy showers on Thursday with possible hail.
